Soulmate Cosmological Action, describes the action path of life that soulmate pairs must follow to contribute uniquely to Cosmic Evolution and obtain their blissful crown of Oneness. It guides them toward finding their path, and developing their personal cosmology.

It describes the universality of soulmate interaction, which creates all things, and how it is modeled by the octave of music that is itself theoretically derived from basic arithmetic; thus, it shows how children can be taught music and arithmetic simultaneously!

It is pertinent to all spirits who are nearing the end of their evolution in the domain of material consciousness under the domination of blind and irrational animal emotions. It enables them to ask and answer questions that are uniquely relevant to their past, present, and future lives and to direct their profound aspirations toward obtaining Cosmic Consciousness and realizing Eternal Life enfolded in the awesome Light and Love of Yahweh. It implies that the bliss of Soulmate Oneness is an eternal reward that can only be earned by developing themselves physically, mentally, and spiritually through the agonizing and ecstatic experiences that are generated by the dual action processes of countless lifetimes at all levels of Cosmic Spiritual Expression.

In our presentation, we are going to make it abundantly clear that each and every evolving soulmate pair is unique and distinct in the eyes of Yahweh who is patiently awaiting their evolutionary awakening. Therefore, throughout many incarnations of development, each soulmate pair must intuitively, intellectually, and spiritually construct their special cosmology through which they can obtain their unique perspective of the Cosmos and ultimately arrive at culminated Oneness with themselves and with Yahweh. The awesome bliss which is bestowed by God The Cosmos, the representative of Yahweh, upon soulmate pairs who have achieved the Oneness of Yahweh is beyond all evaluation and cannot be described to those who have not experienced it.

Since Cosmic Awareness cannot be given by one soulmate pair to another, it is the ordained responsibility of each and every soulmate pair to develop their cosmology by traveling a unique and personal path of evolutionary action which they themselves have chosen. Along this path their consciousness evolves from the darkness of materialism, and experiences in the illusion of death, to the awesome divine awareness of being Gods in the Cosmos who are eternally bounded and centered by the Love and Light of Yahweh.

We will show that even though Yahweh, the Nameless One, is beyond all knowing by the finite conscious mind; It can, nevertheless, be perceived through Its Creation and Representative which we refer to as God The Cosmos. Consequently, Yahweh can only be worshiped by praising the wonders of Its awe inspiring and glorious Cosmos. It is by adoring Yahweh in this manner, and sharing the wonders of Its Cosmos with each other, that evolving soulmate pairs gradually culminate their union and realize the awesome bliss of their Eternal Oneness with all things. Thus mankind has always been deeply inspired by Yahweh to learn all that can be comprehended concerning God The Cosmos. They then subject that learning to deep and provocative thought and meditation which harmonizes with Yahweh's omnipotent Cosmic Mind to stimulate in them the development of profound understanding. Understanding is the culmination of the mental and spiritual interactions of knowledge and wisdom through the experience of many lifetimes; indeed, the three of them resolve into One which constitutes the Cosmic Love and Light of Yahweh.

We wish to emphasize, in our presentation, that the agony of being separated from your soulmate, the great longing and desire to find your soulmate, the ecstasy of believing that you have found your soulmate, and then the agony which you feel when you realize that you have not yet found your soulmate and; indeed, all of these combined with the infinite diversity of experiences that are generated by your relentless search for Oneness, while evolving through the darkness of materialism, are action experiences which are absolutely required for your evolution toward the Bliss of Cosmic Oneness. Consciousness can only evolve through experience in duality because Light can only be comprehended and appreciated with respect to a background of darkness.

We will support our suggestion that everyone, who is interacting with potential soulmates, treat them as if they were your real soulmates because, at the very least, they are helping you to evolve toward finally becoming eligible to being united with your ultimate soulmate in this lifetime or some future lifetime. We guarantee you that if you cannot establish a joyful and happy relationship with someone who is compatible with you but not your ultimate soulmate, then you also do not qualify to obtain the bliss of Cosmic Oneness with Yahweh and your eternal soulmate who is always in spiritual contact with you while both of you are evolving through the agony and the ecstasy of many lifetimes of evolutionary experience.

Finally we will urge all of those, who deeply desire to accelerate their evolution toward culminating their soulmate union by experiencing the awe and wonder of Yahweh's Divine Living Cosmos, to fill themselves with the joy of learning about It through the beautiful and powerful languages of mathematics and music.

In our presentation, we will present the foundations of Soulmate Cosmological Action through the masculine aspect of language which is mathematics. Then we will show that the octave of music is the perfect model for the Light Action Cycle which is generated by the harmonic interchange of the energy of love between dual-sexed pairs. Finally we will employ the feminine language of music to demonstrate this awesome Light Action Cycle, which Yahweh used to create the entire Cosmos, with inspired music created spontaneously on the piano. Thus Yahweh projected the Cosmos into being with Light and all things within it are bounded and centered by the Neutral Action Processes of Its Love.

ABOUT THE AUTHORS

Dr. Henry Monteith was deeply inspired by nature as a youthful farmer. He learned the physical structure of the universe by studying Electrical Engineering, Computer Science, Physics and Mathematics. He realized the spiritual nature of man by studying history, religion, and parapsychology. Finally he comprehended the evolutionary destiny of soulmate pairs, by studying psychic powers, Ufology, and Cosmology.

Erika Monteith initially studied in the cellars and bunkers of war torn Germany with bombs falling. She gained admittance to the Heidelberg Music-Conservatory and received a Master's degree as a Pianist and Pedagogue in Music from Germany. She developed new ideas in teaching and created new ways to interchange, transform and adapt classical music to modern music.
