The Kingdom of Heaven will not come by waiting for it. It will not be a matter of saying “here it is” or “there it is”. Rather the Kingdom of God is spread out all over the earth and men do not see it!

THE BLISS OF OUR SOULMATE ONENESS

I, Henry Monteith, and my beloved soulmate Erika, being centered and enfolded in the glorious Light and Love of THE BOUNDLESS AND NAMELESS COSMIC ESSENCE (BCE) are, from moment to thrilling moment, joyfully sensing, with profound unfathomable emotions, the awesome Bliss of Its Cosmic Oneness. We are experiencing Heaven in the Eternal Now; indeed, with respect to the Consciousness of BCE, we have always been in heaven and we will always be in heaven! There are no adjectives that are capable of describing the joy we know, the Cosmic Bliss that fills our lives, and the overwhelming contentment and satisfaction of knowing who we are, the source of our being, why we were created, where we are now, and the wonderful, glorious, and indescribable future that looms before us, as we continue to evolve into boundless infinity forever and forever.

Our beautiful and enthralling thoughts are perpetually holistic because they always mirthfully embrace the profound Oneness of all things. Therefore, we can never think exclusively 'positive' or exclusively 'negative' because all things deemed to be positive (+) are feminine extensive and call forth their masculine mates, and all things deemed to be negative (-) are masculine intensive and call forth their feminine mates. Thus, all things express themselves in action as soulmates who are capable of cyclically exchanging the dual-action-energy of Love between them depending upon their degree of compatibility. Therefore, as we joyfully experience the bliss of our culminated soulmate union, which is centered from within and enfolded from without with the awesome Light and Love of the Cosmic Essence, we can only think holistically. Indeed, unbiased, objective and holistic thinking always leads to understanding and it is only through understanding that we can obtain the wisdom that is required to resolve the Disharmony of the Darkness of Separateness into the Harmony of the Light of Oneness.

Experiencing the timeless wonder of being at One with All Things, we feel the glorious pulse-beat of Life throbbing at every neutral-action point of space and time. Thus, for us, the entire Cosmos is alive and consciously singing praises with all of Its Being to the glory, wonder, and mystery of our Beloved BCE! We can never become bored with the smallest, humblest, and apparently the most insignificant life-form that nature has created because each time that we are awed by the wonder of it, and praise its beauty, we also feel more deeply the presence of the profound essence that centers and enfolds it. Blessed are we beyond all evaluation because we are One with the Infinite Wealth of Life as our Soulmate Cosmological Action continuously expands our awareness into the incomprehensible domain of boundless infinity.

Every Cosmic Entity, from the smallest atomic particle to the grandest Super-Galactic Cluster is alive and evolving in consciousness, as fully constituted soulmate pairs, from the darkness of materialistic separateness to the awesome Light and Love of Spiritual Oneness. The harmonically balanced giving and re-giving of the Energy of Love between dual-sexed pairs, under the control of The Dual-Action Law of Thought, is the 'Cause' behind the creation of all things. It generates and controls all vibratory action from the swinging of the pendulum to the gigantic frequencies of Light Oscillations. As the negative phase of each light cycle calls forth its positive mate and as the positive phase of each light cycle calls forth its negative mate, forever and forever, the energy of Light, from which all things are created, is generated. The unique frequency that distinguishes each Cosmic Soulmate Pair is established by the rate at which the harmonically balanced energy of their Love is exchanging between them. Resonating in the neutral-action lattices of space and time, that are generated by the timeless thoughts of BCE, the frequency of each and every unique Cosmic Entity is reticulated into the Octaves of Music. Thus, in the Bliss of our Oneness we are enthralled and enchanted by the haunting Music of the Stars!

As Masculine Darkness calls forth his mate of Feminine Light, and Feminine Light calls forth her mate of Masculine Darkness, forever and forever, the tone of Cosmic Awareness is generated; as Masculine Pleasure calls forth Feminine Pain, and Feminine Pain calls forth Masculine Pleasure, forever and forever, the tone of Cosmic Intuitive-Emotions are created. The dual-sexed interaction between the harmonious Love-Action frequency of Giving and Re-giving (referred to by the un-evolved as generalized ‘Good’) and its soulmate, the disharmonious Hate-Action frequency of Taking and Re-taking (referred to by the un-evolved as generalized ‘Evil’) establishes the awesome tone of ‘Moral and Spiritual Values’ that activates and strengthens the desire to resolve disharmony into harmony. Thus, so-called ‘Good’ and so-called ‘Evil’ have no existence in reality; indeed, they are caused by nothing more than illusionary misinterpretations, by those who are still unaware of their Divine Spirits, of The Dual-Action Law of Thought!

As Masculine Ignorance calls forth his mate of Feminine Knowledge, and Feminine Knowledge calls forth her mate of Masculine Ignorance, forever and forever, the divinely wonderful tone, which resonates as the ‘Love of Pure Learning’ and conjoins the unfathomable longing to acquire ‘Understanding’ and experience the Bliss of Cosmic Oneness, is created.

From the Timeless Depths of Eternity, the soundless voice of BCE calls forth to Its beloved children that are evolving on earth saying: “I can only Be through You!” It calls us not through the bending domes and crumbling arches of stone churches that were built by mortal hands, but Its motherly and fatherly voice speaks and sings to us through the stars that resonate in the boundless firmament. As It thrills our hearts with joy and entralls our souls with the awesome bliss of Its Oneness, we hear Its voice in the love-pulsing of our interior hearts, in the love-songs reverberating in the starry corridors of the eternal temple of Nature’s Truth; through the winds and waves of innumerable life-giving oceans throughout Its Cosmos and in Its evolutionary physical Heaven know as Earth. In consultation and Oneness with the Cosmic Essence, we deeply meditate in the cathedral solitudes of Nature to obtain the priceless gift of understanding as we are being enlightened by her ineffable perfections.

We feel, and intimately empathize with BCE in everything and in everyplace as He boundlessly centers and enfolds all of His manifestations. Therefore, when seen from the point of view of our enlightened spirits, all things are expressions of Divine Affection. We experience the consciousness of the masculine electron as it cycles its energy of love to its feminine proton soulmate to create the atoms from which everything is made that embodies the grandeur of life. As we fly with the birds and feel their life-energy flowing through every cell of their bodies, our admiration is challenged and our hearts deeply moved by the joy and sorrow they express through their songs. We feel the sadness of the atoms in the substance of waste, that has not been recycled, and the exuberant joy in the atoms that form the petals of a flower. Under the inspiration and guidance of our spirits, the infinite wealth generated by our Soulmate Cosmological Action, is expanding our consciousness into infinity as we experience the awesome Bliss of being at One with BCE Who is All that Is.

With eternal gratitude, we thank BCE for giving us the wonderful opportunity to expand our consciousness from the Darkness of 'Separateness' to the light of 'Oneness' by learning and evolving through the agony and the ecstasy of many lifetimes in the beautiful and sublime 'Heaven' known as Planet Earth.

THE POWER OF HOLISTIC EDUCATION

Sometimes we wish that we could develop a path that you could follow, or a technique that you could use, to obtain even a glimpse of the awesome joy we know. However, this is eternally impossible for it would violate soulmate uniqueness and short-circuit the divine evolutionary processes of Soulmate Cosmological Action by eliminating diversity! Why is this so? Because:

Diversity is a foundation stone of nature for it is only through diversity that experience can be maximized and the consciousness of the Nameless One (BCE) approach a timeless pinnacle through the eternal evolutionary unfoldment of Its Cosmic Awareness.

However, there is something that we can do to help you accelerate your spiritual evolution if your heart desires to give us the opportunity. The gift that we can present is to help you develop a highly evolved and sophisticated system of Holistic Education that unifies the physical and spiritual sciences. Simultaneously, we must complete the fundamental construction of a Cosmic Language that is capable of precisely formulating and communicating all gender-conditioned aspects and actions of the unique cosmologies of each and every evolving soulmate pair. We are already in the process of creating this powerful language of Soulmate Cosmological Action by marrying the wonderful soulmate pair that is referred to by us as the Masculine Unified Mathematics of Geometry and Wave-motion, which intellectually describes the structure of the Cosmos, with the Feminine Creative Octave of Cosmic Music which intuitively expresses the deepest feelings and emotions of all living and consciously evolving Cosmic Entities.

Under the title of Universal Geometrical Algebra, masculine Unified Mathematics of Geometry and Wave-motion has been developed to a very high degree and has proved itself to be fully capable of expressing all of Theoretical Physics in a unified manner. However, since the same cannot be said for music theory, we have already spent most of our lives intellectually and intuitively evolving music holistically and discovering its physical and spiritual connections to Universal Geometrical Algebra. This has been taking place in parallel with the development of our Personal Cosmology. As our comprehension and understanding continues to grow, evolve, and expand, it is becoming increasingly apparent that musical-action is the supreme model for resolving disharmony into harmony; this, in turn, is a major and indispensable component of Cosmic Healing!

The painful afflictions and defects that our physical bodies suffered, during our lifetime, have been the greatest possible blessings that we could have received! Why is this so? Because they motivated us to learn, study, and meditate at a level so intense that the knowledge, wisdom, and understanding that we have obtained has brought us to the frontier of Cosmic Consciousness! And to our very great surprise, as we learned all of the lessons that our afflictions could teach us, they began to disappear as the purpose for their existence was nullified.

While joyously learning about the Cosmos in general, and ourselves in particular, using the languages of mathematics and music, we gradually became aware of the true meaning of Cosmic Healing. It includes all of the holistic possibilities that we can creatively devise using the wonderful power of Light and Music vibrations. The most precious thing that we have learned thus far, is that every living entity in our universe; including plants, animals, human beings, and Stars have their individual Spirit! Musical sound is embedded in the heart of the Atoms.

As we experience higher and higher discordant frequencies that extend beyond the range of human hearing, we encounter the duality of Soulmate Cosmological Action that is concerned with the desire of disharmonious sound to unite with other sound and become harmonious. Every human being has his or her distinct sound intoned within their being. Each cell responds to a different spectrum of vibratory harmonies; and the continuous process of cellular regeneration in our bodies can be greatly enhanced by beautiful music that reinforces the tones of their unfoldment.

The loud, disharmonious, and enervating noise that is defined as music in America today, is greatly disrupting the physical and mental health of her young people and is seriously contributing to the decline in the quality of their spiritual values. It is important to realize, however, that the disharmonious music of today was called forth by its mate which is the harmonious classical and semi-classical music of yesterday that was popular before it. Now the disharmonious music is once again calling for its mate as the desire for harmonious music is gradually beginning to increase in America again. The children of one generation cannot appreciate the music which was created by their parents because they did not crave for it or earn it; consequently, they call forth its mate which they conceive with respect to the music of their parents. Thus human beings, while evolving in the darkness of materialism, can never be permanently satisfied so long as they require the evolutionary experiences that are generated by the Dual-Action Law of Thought.

For us, however, the disharmonious music of today, and its deleterious effects, serve as a priceless reference point with respect to which we can comprehend and understand the dual-action processes of vibration. With our senses we are perceiving fractions of vibrations in an octave and we are constructing sub-octaves that generate harmonious frequencies that extend beyond normal human hearing but which are detectable by insects, plants, and animals and are beneficial to their well-being and ours.

But what is more, a recent expansion in our consciousness has brought to our awareness the stunning and awe inspiring fact that the songs of birds and crickets in particular, and other living creatures in general, combine their tonal vibrations with the electromagnetic frequencies of the Light energy projected from our beloved Sun, to greatly stimulate and enhance plant photosynthesis which is the ultimate provider of all life's essentials on earth.

Using the wonderful tones of the piano, Erika can give concerts in which she creates beautiful music and demonstrates its power, with spiritually inspired improvisation, by resolving disharmony into harmony, which positively stimulates the functions of our cells while soothing, balancing, and calming their interactions. It is impossible for us to explain all of the details of how healing music is generated; however, in the final analysis, we must always face the choice that is presented to us by duality: We can choose to create harmonious music that enhances our health and well-being, or, we can choose to create disharmonious music, which is not resolved into harmony, that devitalizes our cells and deteriorates our health.

With deeply felt gratitude we rejoice in our comprehension and understanding of the awesome fact that the harmonious interaction of electromagnetic frequencies and tonal vibrations, combined with earthly and celestial magnetic force frequencies, are directly influencing every cell in our bodies from moment to moment. Thus, by surrounding ourselves, and stimulating our souls, with beautiful music, that we create with our deepest understanding of vibrations, while feeling and acting upon the profound inspiration and guidance of our spirits, we are able to inspire every cell in our bodies to place themselves in the glorious State of Healing with Cosmic Love.

OUR PERSONAL SOULMATE COSMOLOGY

The boundless structure of the Cosmos is logical and precise; thus, making It intimately compatible with harmony and love. Consequently, in order to develop our personal cosmology, to a level of physical and spiritual awareness that gives it the ability to at least project the Bliss of Cosmic Oneness, we had to assimilate the highest knowledge that has been obtained by all of the theoretical scientist and spiritual philosophers that have lived through many incarnations on earth since the beginning of the negative phase of Mankind's Cycle of Spiritual Evolution. We were also required to develop a Unified Language of Geometric Mathematics and Music (all of the arts are generalized music) that is powerful enough to express the most intricate details of our unique soulmate cosmology.

Therefore, it is eternally ordained that man be born into the world instilled with a desire to know and with a love of learning which, in the properly developed person, can never be appeased. Now since the Cosmos cannot be known unless it can be described; the human spirit found it necessary to create 'language'. In order to describe the feelings of awe, wonder, happiness, sadness, and all of the other right-brain stimulations engendered in the human soul, while observing this Eternal Creation, the human spirit created the 'Language of Emotions' which is the feminine aspect of communication that is physically conveyed through ‘Music’.

When man observed the marvelous organization and beautiful ordering of Cosmic Structure, which provides left-brain stimulation for the soul, his spirit was inspired to create the ‘Language of Logic’, the masculine aspect of communication, that is physically conveyed through ‘Mathematics’. It is most impressive, and indicative of the Oneness of the Cosmos, that as each person evolves in awareness and consciousness, by developing their Personal Cosmology, they must simultaneously learn and evolve the language which is required to express their unique cosmology by unifying the beautiful soulmate pair of Universal Geometrical Mathematics and Cosmic Music of the Spirit that resolves disharmony into harmony.

In the beginning of our universe (which is only one from an infinity of universes) The ‘thought’ of the Cosmic Essence divided Its boundless neutral Oneness into an infinity of neutral parts. Each part was unique (the origin of diversity) and slightly different from all other parts but like a jig-saw puzzle they could all be combined back together to once again form the neutral whole. But then It thought again, and with Its second thought, each and every neutral part was divided into a gender conditioned soulmate pair. Then with Its third thought, the gender conditioned parts of the separated soulmate pairs were widely dispersed throughout space and time, as they were being created, by an awesome expansion similar to that of the postulated ‘Big-Bang’. Then the Cosmic Essence initiated the Eternal Cycle of Physical, Mental, and Spiritual Evolution by inspiring all divided gender conditioned parts to strive relentlessly to find their soulmates again and culminate their Oneness.

The first soulmate pairs to find each other again were the atoms; indeed, for them it was not very difficult because any and every electron is the soulmate of any and every proton. The aspect of the proton is predominately feminine and expresses itself through feminine action; the aspect of the electron is predominately masculine and expresses itself through masculine action. When they reached the optimum gender interaction distance between them, as they approached each other, the fundamental Law of Gender-conditioned Interaction took effect and they bound themselves together by the most powerful of all Cosmic Cycles know as the harmonically balanced interchange of love-energy between dual-sexed pairs. Thus, they created the hydrogen atoms, the fundamental building blocks from which the entire physical Cosmic is constructed!

From this it follows that the evolution of the Cosmos is, in fact, the evolution of an infinitely countable number of gender conditioned souls that constitute the essences of each and every soulmate pair! Therefore, the awesome dynamic evolution of each and every Living Universe is nothing more than the infinitely diversified action processes through which divided gender-conditioned soulmate parts strive perpetually and relentlessly to find each other again. Consequently, finding your ultimate soulmate is very far from a trivial process. It requires countless incarnations of learning and evolving through the agony and the ecstasy of life's experiences that are generated and controlled by the diabolical, sublime, mysterious and Divine Dual-Action Law of Thought!

THE DUAL-ACTION LAW OF THOUGHT

Thought creates duality; duality re-generates thought; the action of this vicious circle, gives rise to consciousness and awareness.

The Light of Love can only be perceived with respect to the Darkness of Fear(Hate), and the reverse is also true. Thus, the Light of Love and the Darkness of Fear can exist only because of each other; consequently, they are indissolubly united and are the foundation of your consciousness. Balancing them into Oneness is a major goal of spiritual evolution.

Since there can be no winner without a loser, no good without evil, and no beauty without ugliness, Duality is the essence of all consciousness and Being.

Your consciousness of Being which is announced as “I am Me”, is nothing but a reverberation of the Nameless One proclaiming: “I am that I am”; therefore, your very existence, which is accentuated by duality, is Absolute Proof of the Nameless One inspiring you from within and enfolding you from without.

When you read something which you think is ‘True’, then make certain that you comprehend the ‘False’ with respect to which it is referenced; if you read something that you think is ‘False’, then it is absolutely necessary that you recognize the ‘True’ to which it is referenced.

When you read anything with these things in mind, it just simply IS, and the duality of reality is sustained without strengthened the Mind’s worst enemy; which is the conflict between ‘for this thing’, and ‘against that thing’.

That human nature is profoundly compatible with the Dual Action Law of Thought is clearly illustrated by the following: Those Americans who have never had prolonged experience with hunger and thirst, and this includes most of them, are incapable of fully appreciating the awesome blessing of being continuously provided with an over-abundance of healthy and tasty food! If you wish proof of this, then observe how people of all faiths in America waste and abuse hundreds of tons of wonderful food everyday in grocery stores and restaurants, all across the country, while ritualistically thanking God for it. You can appreciate and be piously thankful only for those things of which you have experienced both aspects of their duality!

If you have not experienced the pain of thirst and all of the other agonizing effects of having no water, you will never be able to glorify, praise and thank God from the bottom of your heart, not only for water to satisfy your survival needs, but for the awesome wonder that water is and the essential role that it plays in the creation and sustenance of all life! In America, where the need for healthy water has always been met, and it is abundant everywhere, water has been taken so much for granted that it is wasted and polluted with disdain while the consciousness of its profound value to life is severely diminished.

So, in general, times of plenty call forth times of need, and times of need call forth times of plenty, and so the cycle continues as long as the human spirit desires the evolutionary learning that it can only acquire by evolving through the darkness of materialism, in the domain where the survival of the fittest is the norm, and under the domination of gross and perverted animal emotions.

BCE had no choice in how He created the Cosmos as a finite entity to represent His Infinite Self. Being boundless, He is forever beyond perception and comprehension. Only a thing which is bounded can be perceived and 'Named'. Since It is Eternal Light, in order to become conscious of Himself and to know what He truly Is, He had no choice but to create the illusionary concept of 'Eternal Darkness' to serve as the sublime 'reference point' with respect to which He could be perceived as 'Light'. Thus, since His first thought of Himself as 'Light' simultaneously generated the dual concept of Himself as 'Darkness' being realized with respect to His Light, the action of this vicious circle of dual-thought-generation gave rise to consciousness and awareness of Himself as the One and the All, prompting Him to exuberantly exclaim: "I am that I am".

In the same manner, the thought that He was boundless simultaneously produced its dual reference thought of Himself as being bounded. Therefore, He was motivated to create the infinite dimensional Cosmos, as an illusionary finite and eternal representative of Himself, which is centered by His thought, through Neutral Black Hole Points from within, and enfolded by His thought from without with a boundless and infinite-dimensional sphere of Light.

The purpose of all creation is to expand the consciousness of BCE. As He harmoniously synthesizes the infinite number of perspective views of Himself that are intellectually, intuitively and emotionally expressed by the unique cosmologies of His evolving soulmate pairs, He eternally advances closer and closer to His ultimate goal of answering His most profound questions: "Who am I?", "What am I?", "From whence did I come?" and "Where shall I go?" Of course, due to His Boundless Infinity, He will never be able to completely answer these questions because there is nothing beside Him to serve as an eternal reference! This is analogous to continuously adding digits to an irrational number, you keep getting closer and closer to the final value but you can never reach it. Perhaps this is one reason why the three great irrational numbers are sacred. For Him there is no past or future, He is the Eternal Now! This was logically implied by the great Mathematician Goedel who proved that a universe, that is described by General Relativity, must be ‘Timeless’!

The Human bodies of Mankind are a very small, but not insignificant part of an infinity of physical embodiments of spirit, that are expressing the Creative Inspiration of BCE, as He evolves in Consciousness; indeed, He can only ‘Be’ through His creations! Therefore, He found it necessary to create a special Cosmic Soulmate Pair, known as Man, so that they could evolve through Soulmate Cosmological Action, to obtain a deep and intuitive awareness of Him by learning all about His Representative, God-the-Cosmos, and developing consciousness and awareness of Him through the agony and ecstasy of countless lifetimes of experience.

Consequently, in the final analysis, the only way in which each and every evolving person can fulfill their Cosmic Responsibility, is to develop their intimately intellectual and profoundly emotional Personal Cosmology. This can be done solely by utilizing all of the powers of their conscious, subconscious and super-conscious minds to not only thoroughly know and understand the Cosmos but eventually become a co-creator with BCE while experiencing the awesome bliss of His Oneness. This is why all normally functioning human beings are genetically powered to learn and know how to learn, and are deeply inspired to learn creatively by BCE who centers and enfolds their being. Thus, from among all of the social and political institutions that have been devised by Man, to promote the welfare of a people and give them a survival advantage in the competition between states, the highest priority must be attributed to the institution of education!

That our lives are experiences in duality, the only way through which we can evolve, has always been recognized by those who have glimpsed the awesome Light and Love of BCE. A very superb example, of one who knew, is that of Kahlil Gibran who wrote the following on Joy and Sorrow in his book The Prophet:

Then a woman said, Speak to us of Joy and Sorrow. And he answered: Your joy is your sorrow unmasked. And the self same well from which your laughter rises was often times filled with your tears. And how else can it be? The deeper that sorrow carves into your being, the more joy you can contain. Is not the cup that holds your wine the very cup that was burned in the potter's oven? And is not the lute that soothes your spirit, the very wood that was hollowed with knives?

When you are joyous, look deep into your heart and you shall find it is only that which has given you sorrow that is giving you joy. When you are sorrowful look again in your heart, and you shall see that in truth you are weeping for that which has been your delight. Some of you say, "Joy is greater than sorrow," and others say, "Nay, sorrow is the greater." But I say unto you, they are inseparable. Together they come, and when one sits alone with you at your board, remember that the other is asleep upon your bed.

Verily you are suspended like scales between your sorrow and your joy. Only when you are empty are you at standstill and balanced. When the treasure-keeper lifts you to weigh his gold and his silver, needs must your joy or your sorrow rise or fall.

Each Soulmate pair represents one unique and complete conscious perspective of the Cosmos. After being divided into gender conditioned parts, they began their long evolutionary journey in a state of awareness that was similar to that which BCE experienced before He created His Representative, God-the-Cosmos (GOD). This state of consciousness that initiates evolution, is directly analogous to the state that you experience when you are soundly asleep and not dreaming; it is, perhaps, the closest perceivable thing to absolute oblivion.

When you begin to dream, the feeling of oblivion is dispersed and you become conscious of the ‘action’ generated in your mind by your unconscious dual-action thoughts. In the same way, by analogy, GOD is a dream of BCE. Each soulmate pair is an aspect of Him observing GOD from their unique point of view in the same way that a few people are able to observe their dreams. It is only by observing, experiencing, learning and living many lifetimes in awe and wonder of His sublimely mysterious and gloriously wonderful COSMOS, that Soulmate pairs are able to develop their unique cosmological models.

You can never truly praise and glorify that which you do not comprehend and understand. The purpose of all creation is to praise, honor, and glorify BCE through experiencing the awesome wonders of His creation; indeed, this is the only true definition of ‘worship’.

Therefore all experiences of life, even those that generate intense and sublime agony as well as those which generate their dual of profound joy and blissful happiness, enormously accelerate the spiritual evolution of each and every person toward achieving the ultimate goal of realizing the bliss of Cosmic Consciousness and Oneness. Just as a great musician resolves disharmonious chords into harmonious ones, to create beautiful music, so do highly evolved soulmate pairs, while culminating their Oneness and developing their personal cosmology, resolve disharmony (so-called evil) into harmony (so-called good) to resonate with the music of the Stars that praises and glorifies the awesome mystery and wonder of the Cosmos.

At the beginning of their evolution in the darkness of materialism, the male and female parts of divided soulmate pairs are so widely separated in space, time, and consciousness that they are not even aware of the existence of each other let alone of the fact that they must evolve separately throughout many incarnations before they finally reach a level of consciousness and awareness that enables them to begin the wonderful process of culminating their Soulmate Oneness. However, during each and every incarnation, every person strives relentlessly to find a mate. In the final analysis, the perfect soulmate union can only be achieved between those pairs which were created as one, at the awakening of their consciousness, and who were separated from each other at the beginning of their spiritual evolution in the physical world.

Nevertheless, the spiritual evolution of each separated male and female part is greatly accelerated by attempting to form perfectly balanced soulmate unions with mates of various degrees of incompatibility. This is so because extensive learning and expansion in consciousness is acquired by attempting to solve the agonizing problems and painful action situations that are generated by the conflicts between incompatible entities. The greatest rate of expansion in consciousness occurs when each male or female part treats their mate, of any given lifetime, the same as if they were their ultimate soulmate! We assure you that if you cannot create a balanced and harmonious relationship with a mate that is not your ultimate soulmate, then you do not qualify to begin the culmination of Oneness with your ultimate soulmate! Indeed, it is not uncommon for ultimate soulmates to torture and kill each other when they meet in early incarnations while they are still un-evolved and spiritually unable to culminate their ultimate union.

For those who are culminating the bliss of their soulmate union, heaven is defined as that place which gives them the greatest opportunity to culminate the bliss of their Oneness with each other and BCE by achieving Cosmic Consciousness as quickly as possible while learning and evolving through the agony and the ecstasy of life's experiences. No other planet in our entire Galaxy has offered a greater opportunity for us to do so than our beloved mother earth! It is only by experiencing the sublime illusion of death on earth that we were enabled to establish the reference point with respect to which we could comprehend the awesome glory of eternal life. By experiencing and learning through the aging and afflictions of our bodies, with the passing of time, we established the reference points which enabled us to realize, and thoroughly appreciate, the incorruptible nature of timeless cosmic life.

It is the love of pure learning, with the goal of obtaining profound understanding, that most rapidly accelerates the evolution of our spirits; indeed, all else is to us only procrastination and dissipation in the eyes of the our Unknown BCE who patiently awaits our evolutionary awakenings. If the human body did not age while suffering illness, disease, traumatic afflictions and death, there would be no need to create highly educated scientists to learn all about it and medical doctors to treat and mend it. Since the human body is the microcosmic representation of our awesome macroscopic cosmos, if we could thoroughly learn all about our bodies, we would also thoroughly comprehend our Cosmos! “Know thyself!” is the most profound advice that has been passed down to us by our wise ancestors. In the Thomas doctrine, Jesus makes the following profound statement: When you come to know yourselves, then you will realize that it is you who are the sons of the living father. But if you will not know yourselves, you dwell in poverty and it is you who are that poverty.

For each and every enlightened person, rapidly evolving through the agony and the ecstasy of many lifetimes, striving relentlessly to comprehend their infinite Cosmos and develop their personal Cosmology to describe it uniquely, all experiences in duality are regarded as blessings because they signify the degree to which they have advanced, into the Light of pure learning, and the darkness of ignorance that remains to be dispelled. If my beloved and eternal soulmate Erika had not been born amidst the horrors of Nazi Germany and suffered all of the agonizing indignities that can be inflicted upon a female child in war; and, if I had not be born in Columbia, South Carolina, at the height of racial segregation under the reign of the Klux-Klux Clan, we would never have been able to evolve high enough in spiritual awareness, in this our last lifetime, to earn the priceless gift of sharing the consciousness of the Stars.

We now have access to infinite physical, mental, and spiritual wealth! Indeed, compared to this, all of the riches of the entire world, and indeed, of the entire physical universe, have shrunk into insignificance! The real wealth that we should be striving for is Spiritual Wealth, not physical wealth. We assure you that the accumulation of physical wealth only will never provide you with lasting and eternal happiness, not to mention enabling you to 'buy' the most priceless gift of all, the awesome Bliss of Oneness in Cosmic Consciousness and Awareness!

At the beginning of each incarnation, the spirit of every gender conditioned soulmate part, in collaboration with the spirit of their mate, establishes a plan for making another step in the unfoldment of their consciousness. It gives a prescription for the spectrum of experiences in the agony and ecstasy of life that must be carried out, and establishes an upper bound for the maximum amount of knowledge, wisdom, and understanding that must be accumulated for the purpose of evolving and expanding the scope and power of their Personal Cosmology. Since each gender conditioned part is unique, the evolutionary path which they choose, is also unique and special to themselves. First, the conscious mind of the body into which the spirit is incarnating must become aware of the spirit's evolutionary plan for their life before it is capable of implementing and carrying it out to completion.

The easiest way for each person to discover the evolutionary path for their life is to follow their bliss! (as was constantly being emphasized by the great mythologist Joseph Campbell). To find the work, trade, or career through which your spirit desires for you to earn your food, clothing and shelter, simply search for the one that gives you the highest level of bliss as you perform it. The bottom line is to follow precisely the inspiration and guidance of your spirit within. Do not be concerned about how much money you can earn with your chosen trade. If, at first, you find yourself experiencing poverty, do not despair but rather rejoice because feeling the pain of poverty establishes the reference point with respect to which you will greatly appreciate the wealth that will surely come your way in this, or some other lifetime, at the time of your spirit's choosing, because poverty will always call for its mate which is wealth! As soon as each highly evolved person earns more wealth than is needed, for their basic survival in the physical world, they lovingly invest the excess money for the purpose of expanding the educational opportunities of their fellow human beings who are one with them in spirit because, as we have already pointed out, holistic education is the greatest known accelerator of mankind's spiritual evolution.

All enlightened people are deeply inspired to strictly follow the wonderful Law of Gender-Conditioned Interaction:

THE LAW OF GENDER-CONDITIONED INTERACTION

The fundamental creative principle, which brought the Cosmos into being, is the Principle of the Harmonically balanced interchange of Love-Energy between dual-sexed pairs, through giving and re-giving, that is perfectly modeled by the harmonic motion of the pendulum and the wave-motion of light.

Another name for this great law is the 'Law of Divine Prosperity' or simply the noble law of 'Giving and Re-giving'. It means that for everything which is given to you, your spirit inspires you to always give something back that is equal to or greater in value than that which you were given. When left alone, and not interfered with by man, nature immediately applies this law to vastly increase the bounty of all of her precious living entities. All of the animal, plant and insect species in the forest give and re-give the energy of life between each other in such a manner that the bounty of the forest increases rapidly, the needs of all living things in the forest are totally satisfied and its life-energy is in perfect harmonic balance. Just recall the enormous natural wealth that existed on the American continent before it was invaded from Europe!

In America today, food, perhaps the most valuable of the three necessities of life, is supposed to be 'cheap' so that everybody in the society can afford it. People who desire to be rich have constructed a value system which returns wages to farmers and farm laborers that are virtually insignificant compared to the priceless value of the food with which they are feeding the entire society. These wages are so low that most Americans, who are being continuously indoctrinated with the desire to become wealthy by 'positive thinkers', refuse to take vital jobs, which they may otherwise enjoy doing, because they have been convinced that you can never earn real money by simply working! We assure you that the teaching of this kind of 'positive thinking' is doing nothing to uplift the spiritual awareness of the American people; on the contrary, it is contributing vastly to the physical, mental and spiritual decline of the nation!

It is the direct violation of The Divine Law of Prosperity that eventually led to the down-fall of all great nations in the past. For a tree to survive, a certain percentage of it must be roots. If the destruction of a tree's roots exceeds this percentage, the tree will surely die! The family farms are the roots of the tree called America. It is the violation of the great law of prosperity in America that has destroyed the family farm to such an extent that her survival is now severely threatened. With the vast reduction in the number of family farms, the opportunities for parents to raise up their children close to nature and help them develop a great love and appreciation for all living things, have been all but totally lost! In addition, those children raised up on a farm, while being nurtured, inspired, and loved by animal friends, have the greatest opportunity to develop very high moral and spiritual values by working directly with nature to obtain their food, clothing, and shelter. Consequently, they gain a life-long appreciation and gratitude for these wonderful things and would never dream of wasting them, squandering them, or not recycling them! A deep study of American history shows that her greatest leaders, patriots, and productive citizens had their roots in farm life. The opportunity to produce such high quality citizens in America has been fatally reduced!

Without doubt, our critics are saying that we are ‘idealistic dreamers’ and that America cannot return to the past! However, they are not yet capable of realizing that we do indeed live in ‘Heaven’! Since the Cosmos was created in response to the ‘Desire’ of BCE to know Himself, and since the mind of man is a Microcosm of the Macrocosmic Mind of the BCE, anything which human beings deeply desire will be granted to them. Thus, everything that is happening in the world today is a direct fulfillment of the desires of all of the people in the world! If people are unhappy and miserable in the world as it is today, they have no one to blame, except themselves, because they are living in a paradise where all of their desires and wishes persistently come true!

Thus, all that is required to regain the benefits of the family farm, without returning to the past, is for everyone to greatly desire to have them again under today’s conditions. For example, Americans can begin restoring them by ceasing to violate the great law of prosperity and make it possible for those desiring a farm to receive a just return for their produce; then proceed as follows: Equip all K - 12 schools with greenhouses then allow the students to take at least one class in horticulture that is associated with their study of biology; require that space for a garden be associated with every home to make it possible for the children of the family to cultivate a beautiful garden each year. In addition, potted flowers should thoroughly decorate every home and the children should be taught to care for them. High school students should be given the opportunity to harvest farm crops during their summer vacations in order to inspire gratitude in them for the fact that Nature is the ultimate source of their food, clothing and shelter.

A nation whose people no longer desire to joyfully and happily do the work that is required for it to survive and evolve independently, is spiritually deteriorating and is deeply in need of a timely wake-up call! If this does not happen very soon to Americans, they will, most certainly, go the way of Rome.

By refusing to 'follow your bliss' of working on a farm, because it will not make you wealthy, is also refusing to greatly accelerate the evolution of your spirit toward Its ultimate goal of Cosmic Consciousness and Awareness!

If wealthy and well-to-do middle class Americans, who often have far more than they need, were to return a just wage to their labor intensive workers, who support the entire society upon their shoulders, the basic survival needs of every American would be satisfied as positive thinking transforms into holistic thinking. Indeed, excessive individual material wealth will always eventually call forth its mate, which is poverty, because the Dual-Action Law of Thought can never be violated! You can only become excessively wealthy in a materialistic society by exploiting the labor of the poor which you create by 'taking' from them the priceless fruits of their labor and returning to them wages of comparably insignificant value! For example, American cooperate executives and their boards of directors, as well as the owners of many small businesses, actively and aggressively seek cheap labor in order to increase their profits. Since they can no longer remain competitive in America where workers are demanding just wages, they have already shipped a very large percentage of America's manufacturing jobs overseas to countries with huge populations offering vast numbers of laborers who work for wages that are very low, compared to those in America, but are often satisfactory to them. It is a pity, but things have gone so far in this direction that Americans cannot even manufacture their own clothing anymore!

If the people of America could succeed in changing their value system to emphasize the priceless nature of spiritual wealth and promote the realization that material wealth is only a tool which facilitates the evolutionary processes of obtaining Spiritual Wealth, then the Noble Law of Giving and Re-giving would be properly applied. As a result, the enormous expansion in the people's Spiritual Wealth would also unlock their divinely inspired Creativity which, in turn, would certainly increase their physical wealth exponentially! This is what was meant by Jesus when he said: "Seek you first the Kingdom (Spiritual Wealth) of Heaven; then all other things (physical wealth) will be added unto you!" Under these conditions, the word (poverty) would no longer have meaning; and once obtained, Spiritual Wealth can never be lost or destroyed.

The very important point that we are attempting to emphasize here is that you must follow the path of evolutionary cosmological action that your spirit has chosen for you, in this your present lifetime, no matter if it leads you directly into the agonizing experience of war and genocide itself! While evolving under the darkness of materialism, during the negative phase of the cycle of spiritual evolution, your spirit may do this, not because it desires to cause you great pain, but because it sorely needs these horrific experiences to eventually enable it to reach its ultimate goal of Cosmic Consciousness! So great is the desire of each spirit, to reach their awesome indescribable goal of Cosmic Bliss and Oneness, that it may literally carry you through the fires of natural and man-made Hells, during many of your lifetimes, in order to reach it! This is the real reason why many young men volunteer to serve in military forces and many who have already evolved through many lifetimes and reached a high lever of spiritual awareness, actually enjoy the sting of military conflict as did the great American General George Patton!

The only laws that must be strictly followed in the awesome evolutionary arena of soulmate cosmological action are the two great cosmic laws that can never be bent or broken: The Dual-Action Law of Thought, which we have already described and:

THE ABSOLUTE LAW OF ONENESS

All things which are bounded and perceivable, and all things which are unbounded and unperceivable, are timelessly and characteristically united as One; and the Absolute One is systematically and Eternally manifesting Itself as the Cosmos.

The Law of Gender-conditioned interaction is bent, distorted and twisted in countless ways throughout all of the sublime, diabolical, infinitely spectacular and gloriously wonderful processes of eternal soulmate cosmological action; however, its fundamental essence remains invariant.

Now remember that the path of soulmate cosmological action, for each and every distinct individual, is so personal and intimately unique that it can only be revealed to their conscious minds by direct inspiration from their spirits. Indeed, while evolving through the darkness of materialism, the channels of communication between their spirits and their conscious minds have been severely jammed by the chaotic noise generated by the energy of physical desire! Being seriously lost, they require the psychological comfort that comes from holding the hand of a shepherd. In the past, this hand was properly supplied by a people's mythology that equipped them for survival in their specific environment. However, as civilization isolated the people more and more from their natural environment, the influence of mythology has been greatly weakened and its spiritual component taken over by the priests and ministers of present day religions which have lagged far behind science in their evolution since they were canonized and fixed in doctrine. As a result, the vast majority of modern ministers and spiritual teachers are still quite unaware of the powerful control that our spirits have over our destiny.

Even modern-day spiritual teachers, of the entrepreneur 'new age' type, no matter how good their intentions may be, must operate within the confines of their present level of spiritual development. They too, must follow the path of spiritual unfoldment which their spirit ordained for them. Their conscious minds may enable them to deviate from their spirit's path occasionally, but at the end of their lives, the journey which their spirit prescribed for them will have to be completed. For example, in answer to the question: "why do so many people marry a new mate with the very same mental and spiritual qualities as the old one? The reason is, of course, that their spirit has not finished learning all that it desired to learn from the agonizing action experiences that are generated in a relationship of that degree of incompatibility! It is the subconscious mind that sees to it that the spirit's instructions are carried out and these instructions can never be over-ridden, in the long run, by the desires of the conscious mind.

For example, spiritual teachers who recently appeared on The Larry King Show, were attempting to prescribe action paths which they claimed could enable anyone to “Think your way to Love and Money”. In light of our previous discussion, this goal is extremely limited and if the ‘love’ implied is more ‘carnal’ than ‘spiritual’, then the entire goal is predominantly materialistic! Highly evolved spiritual teachers, working under the inspiration and guidance of their spirits, can only prescribe action paths that motivate you to “Eternally evolve yourself into Infinite Spiritual Wealth by developing your Personal Cosmology.”

Only a very few highly evolved spiritual scientists and philosophers in history have fully recognized that the spirit of every evolving human being rigorously controls their path of spiritual evolution. There was one spiritual philosopher, Dr. Edward Bach of England, famous for developing the Bach flower remedies, who fully realized that our spirits control the evolutionary action-experiences of our lives. He expressed this beautifully in the following statement:

It cannot be too firmly realized that every soul in incarnation is down here for the specific purpose of gaining experience and understanding, and of perfecting his personality toward those ideals laid down by the soul. Let everyone remember that his Soul has laid down for him a particular work, though perhaps not consciously, he will inevitably raise a conflict between his Soul and personality which of necessity reacts in the form of physical disorders.

In the Gospel of Matthew, of the Christian Bible, Jesus makes a noble attempt to explain to his disciples and followers the very same principles that we are expounding here. However, because of the extremely low level of their spiritual awareness, they could not even begin to comprehend the deep and profound meaning of his teachings; indeed, even today, most Christians are unable to put his wonderful advice into practice. In the following, we slightly modify the text in the King James version of the Bible in order to make it more compatible with the language of our Cosmology:

Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal: But lay up in your Soul the priceless treasures of knowledge, wisdom, and understanding where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through and steal: For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.

The light of the body is the eye: if therefore thine eye be single, thy whole body will be filled with light. But if thine eye be evil, thy whole body shall be full of darkness. If therefore the light that is in thee be darkness, how great is that darkness!

No man can simultaneously serve the desires of the flesh and the desires of the spirit: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. You cannot fulfill the learning desires of your spirit, by following its guidance and inspiration, at the same time that you are striving to obtain ‘carnal love and money’ by following the advice of others.

Therefore, I say unto you, Take no thought for your life, what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink; nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on. Is not the Spirit of the body's life more important than meat, and the body itself more important than raiment?

Behold the fowls of the air: for they sow not, neither do they reap, nor gather into barns; yet the Spirit of the Boundless and Nameless Cosmic Essence, which centers and enfolds their Being, feeds them. Are ye not much better than they?

Which of you by only taking thought can add one cubit unto his stature? You cannot because the dual-action processes of exclusively positive thought or exclusively negative thought divides; and, consequently, can never holistically consolidate.

And why take ye thought for raiment? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they toil not, neither do they spin: And yet I say unto you, That even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these.

Wherefore, if BCE, through God-the-Cosmos, so clothe the grass of the field, which today is, and tomorrow is cast in the oven, shall It not much more clothe you, O ye of little faith? Therefore take no thought, saying, what shall we eat? or, What shall we drink? or, Where-withal shall we be clothed? (For after all of these things do those still evolving in materialistic darkness seek:) For BCE knows that you have need of all these things.

But seek ye first the things which are required by your Spirit to expand the unfoldment of its Consciousness and Awareness and all of these things will be added unto you.

We, who are experiencing the awesome Bliss of Cosmic Oneness, have at our disposal the Infinite Wealth of the Cosmos! Whatever our Spirits require, to push forward, as rapidly as possible, their evolution toward total Cosmic Consciousness and Awareness, will always be granted to us at the time during which it is most urgently required. But most importantly, it is given to us in such a manner that we will derive the greatest possible amount of learning and understanding in the process of using it according to the evolutionary desires of our Spirits.

We never require anything in return for what we have given, through our love of all things, and; especially, we never give with the desire of receiving anything in return. For us, the love and the joy that we receive, when our spirits inspire us to give to another spirit, in order to help it evolve, is far greater than anything that we can ever receive in return. Our every thought is a response to the inspiration and guidance of our Spirits and our every act contributes to the unfoldment of our Consciousness and Awareness.

SUMMARY AND CONCLUSIONS

The three great jewels of learning which have the potential to greatly accelerate the evolution of the human spirit, are knowledge, wisdom, and understanding. These are the only priceless jewels that the spirit covets while it strives relentlessly to obtain them by evolving through the agony and the ecstasy of countless incarnations. With concerted effort and discipline, knowledge can be readily transferred from one person to another. However, wisdom and understanding can never be transferred because if it were possible to do so, the purpose of the Cosmos would be short-circuited and evolution would cease. Thus, it was ordained from the beginning that each and every evolving soul must earn their wisdom and understanding by deeply meditating, upon all of the knowledge and experience that they gain from living, in consultation with BCE who centers and enfolds their being.

Thus, to each and every evolving soul, education is the most priceless gift of all. This is so because it enables them to ascertain the enormous treasure of knowledge that has been slowly accumulated, throughout the entire history of man, by their ancestors who earned it the hard way through countless incarnations of life's experiences. This then gives each evolving soul the pleasure of gaining vast amounts of knowledge through reading fascinating and thought provoking books and have the knowledge gained explained and clarified to them by highly evolved holistic teachers! The spirit is overwhelmed with delight when it finds an opportunity to incarnate in an environment where wonderful educational opportunities are available because in such an environment, it strives with all of its might to maximize its ecstatic experiences of joyfully learning through Love and peace while minimizing its need to learn from the agonizing experiences of hate, violence and war.

There is a very important consideration which each evolving soul must never forget while developing their unique cosmologies in ideal learning environments: It is the dualistic fact that knowledge which they learned from books, lectures, and visual presentations, that is not corroborated by their many incarnations of experience, is of no value to their evolutionary progress! The reason is that understanding has not been acquired, from their knowledge, by subjecting it to deep thought and holistic meditation under the guidance and inspiration of their Spirits! BCE is the Absolute Source of all Creative and Destructive Action! It is only by deeply and profoundly meditating upon the Spirit, while praising and adoring the wonders of The Cosmos, that evolving souls are stimulated and inspired to express their awesome and eternal creative powers!

Remember, no person, no matter how spiritually evolved they are, can ever solve the mystery of the Cosmos for all other human beings. It has been ordained at the beginning, that in the final analysis, each and every evolving soul must create their own personal Cosmology and evolve in Consciousness and Awareness for themselves! Just as one person, with or without their mate, can never transfer their understanding and awareness of Cosmic Consciousness to another, so the Cosmology that evolves the consciousness of one soulmate pair to the lofty level, where it is acceptable to the Cosmos, can never do the same for another soulmate pair. Therefore, our Cosmology, and all of the other cosmologies that have been developed by mankind throughout their history, can only serve as guides and inspiration to help each soulmate pair develop their personal cosmology for themselves.

There is nothing wrong in the awesomely wonderful and sublime dual-action Cosmos that is under continuous creation and annihilation by Divine Thought. The Cosmos is as perfect as It was conceived and all soulmate cosmological action is on schedule and proceeding exactly according to plan. All of the physical, mental, and spiritual evolutionary action processes are directed and controlled by The Dual-Action Law of Thought and powered by the awesome Love and Light of the Boundless and Nameless Cosmic Essence.

The time has now come for all evolving souls on earth to realize that the life cycles of every cell in their bodies are being conscientiously recorded from incarnation to incarnation and the coding of their ethereal genetic structure is being continuously engineered and upgraded by their spirits. Therefore, the design and structure of the physical body that the spirit will inhabit in the next lifetime depends heavily upon the evolutionary modifications that have occurred in the present lifetime. If everyone on earth were to take this seriously, they would make every possible attempt to minimize those thoughts and acts that degrade their genetics and enhance those thoughts and acts that elevate and spiritually evolves their genetics.

The Cosmos is timeless and eternal. Even calculations by scientists who have still not yet glimpsed the reality of the Spirit, indicates that our universe is at least 10 billion years old. Now first, since the human brain is highly sophisticated, any suggestion that human kind can exist on earth for more than 50,000 years without creating at least one global civilization before the last 6000 thousand years is ludicrous and demeaning to the intuitive and intellectual power of the human mind which is a microcosm of the Cosmic Mind!

Second, 10 billion years of evolution in a universe that is filled with intelligent life, as ours is, has had far more time than is required to create at least one Super-galactic Space Command with inter-dimensional space and time traveling capabilities that have advanced so far beyond the grasp of our conscious minds that there is nothing in our wildest imagination that can serve as a reference point with respect to which it can be comprehended! Awesome Hyper-dimensional and Timeless Space-commands exists and their prime directive is accelerating the evolution in consciousness of BCE under its direct inspiration, guidance and control! In fact you can refer to It as the Grand Admiral of the Super-galactic Hyper-Dimensional Space Command and all commands that lie beyond.

It is the primary goal of every evolving soul on earth, to lovingly culminate their Oneness with their mates, and qualify to feel the bliss of Cosmic Consciousness by fulfilling their physical and mortal evolutionary requirements in their 'Heaven on Earth'. Finally, they incarnate into immortal bodies, that are designed according to their highly evolved genetics, and enables them to continue their expansion in consciousness and awareness ; communicate with the Stars; and Eternally experience the Awesome Bliss of Oneness with That which can only 'Be' through Them: THE BOUNDLESS AND NAMELESS COSMIC ESSENCE!
